About our App:

Love 4 Code is an innovative app that merges a dating social network with a professional platform for programmers. It connects IT professionals to create job opportunities, foster collaborations, and build personal relationships within the tech industry.

Key features include:

- Custom profiles showcasing skills and experience.
- A smart matching algorithm for career and personal connections.
- Integrated messaging and specialised forums.
- A section for job offers and freelance projects.

With its unique approach, Love 4 Code redefines networking for developers, blending professional growth with personal connections.
